1. Scope:

- 1.1. This Policy applies to all employees (all teaching and support staff) at KTS Academy, with the exception of employees within their probationary period and those on Apprenticeship schemes.
- 1.2. The policy has been adopted by KTS Academy on the date shown on page 1.
- 1.3. The policy is to be used to deal with matters of misconduct where normal line management action has either failed to achieve the required standards or would be inappropriate in the circumstances.
- 1.4. In certain circumstances it may be appropriate to implement disciplinary action outside the formal disciplinary procedure but only where there is genuine mutual agreement. This should not be regarded as normal practice but can arise when, for example, an employee is made aware of the results of a formal investigation and is prepared to accept a formal warning without the formal hearing process. Appendix 1 provides details of action outside of the formal procedure. Members of staff should be encouraged to contact their trade union/professional association representative for advice in these circumstances.
- 1.5. If a concern or grievance is raised regarding any aspect of this Policy and the accompanying Guidance, it should be dealt with as promptly as possible within this process. Matters should only be referred to be dealt with through the Resolving Issues at Work Procedure where they are not related to the application of this policy for that individual case.
- 1.6. Where reference is made to Manager within this policy, this could mean CEO, Principal, Headteacher, line manager, Head of Department/Faculty or Business Manager. Trustees or Local Governors may be involved where disciplinary issues relate to the CEO/Headteacher/Principal/senior managers or in Disciplinary Hearings and Appeals
- 1.7. When reading and applying the Policy, managers should refer to the accompanying Guidance. Relevant sections of the Guidance are cross-referenced within Section 4 – Procedure.

2. Policy Statement

- 2.1. KTS Academy is committed to encouraging all employees to achieve and maintain high standards of conduct. As such this policy promotes best practice and is to help and encourage all employees to achieve and maintain the required standards of conduct, ensuring consistent fair treatment for all. It is an expectation that all staff will participate in and co-operate with this policy and the Guidance as required.
- 2.2. No employee will be dismissed for a first breach of conduct except in the case of gross misconduct when the sanction will normally be dismissal without notice. A fair process should always be followed in line with section 4 procedure and the accompanying Guidance. Examples of gross misconduct are also outlined in section 6.
- 2.3. The application of this policy and the accompanying Guidance complies with the ACAS Code of Practice for Disciplinary and Grievance.
- 2.4. Managers are strongly advised to take advice from the HR Advisory Service with regards the application of this policy and at all stages of the procedure.

3. Decision Making

- 3.1. KTS has delegated the following powers to the following levels (or above) of Staff:

Sanction	Disciplinary Officer	Appeal Officer
Level 1 - A first warning	HR Manager	Head
Level 2 - A written warning	HR Manager	Head
Level 3 - A final warning	Head	Appeals Governor
Level 4 - Dismissal.	Head	Chair of Governors

- 3.2. Where the employee is employed by KTS as the level of the appointed disciplinary officer, then the next level of management up will ordinarily deal with the matter (i.e., where an allegation is raised against the Head, the Chair or Governors would be the Disciplinary Officer and the Appeals Governor would act as the Appeal Officer).
- 3.3. In the case where the person who would normally be the disciplinary officer is compromised through existing circumstances or, will need to investigate the matter/be significantly involved in the investigation or, does not have the resource to deal with the matter at that time, the case will normally be dealt with by an alternative at the same level or the next level of management. In cases where the head is unable to deal with the matter, the matter will be discussed with the HR Manager to determine the appropriate way forward.

4. Procedure

- 4.1. Right to be accompanied (Please refer to Guidance – Section 2)
Employees have the legal right to be accompanied by a trade union /professional association representative or work colleague at Disciplinary Hearings and Appeal Hearings. KTS Academy will allow staff to be accompanied by a trade union /professional association representative or work colleague at investigatory meetings
- 4.2. Informal action (Please refer to Guidance – Section 3)
Disciplinary action should only be considered where normal line management action has either failed to achieve the required standards or would be inappropriate in the circumstances. Managers are able to take informal action where standards of conduct give cause for concern.
- 4.3. Pre-disciplinary investigation (Please refer to Guidance – Section 4)
Where formal disciplinary action is potentially appropriate an Investigating Officer will be appointed to undertake a pre-disciplinary investigation: he/she will gather the facts, identify, and interview witnesses and obtain documentary evidence. The employee will be informed that an investigation is to be undertaken.
- An Investigating Officer may be the manager, or an independent nominated senior member of staff not connected with the case. An external Investigating Officer may be commissioned to undertake the investigation on behalf of KTS Academy.
- 4.4. Pre-cautionary action (Please refer to Guidance – Section 5)
In some cases, it may be necessary to take precautionary action (temporary redeployment or suspension) whilst an investigation takes place and is not prejudicial in any way to the outcome of the investigation. This should be reviewed on a regular basis.
- 4.5. Outcome of pre-disciplinary investigation (Please refer to Guidance – Section 6)
Following a pre-disciplinary investigation and consideration of the facts and evidence obtained, a decision will be made whether no further action is required, or whether a Disciplinary Hearing needs to be convened to consider the allegations, in order to make a decision regarding disciplinary sanctions. Where no further disciplinary action is taken, the investigating officer may choose to make recommendations e.g., where further training may be advisable.
- 4.6. Disciplinary Hearing (Please refer to Policy section 8, also Guidance – Section 7)
Where a Disciplinary Hearing is to be convened, the employee will be advised in writing and informed of the allegations to be heard and his/her right to be accompanied.

The Disciplinary Hearing will be heard by a panel in line with section 3.

The outcome of the Disciplinary Hearing, and any disciplinary sanction imposed and/or action must be confirmed in writing.

4.7. Disciplinary Sanctions (where necessary) (Please refer to Guidance – Section 8)

Written warning: If the misconduct is sufficiently serious a written warning can be given. The sanction will normally be disregarded for disciplinary purposes after Six months satisfactory conduct.

Final written warning: If there is repeated misconduct or the misconduct is sufficiently serious to justify only one written warning but not serious enough to justify dismissal, a final written warning can be given. The warning will normally be disregarded for disciplinary purposes after Twelve months satisfactory conduct.

All warnings should be extended by the length of time of the summer break if they run throughout this period.

In the case of all warnings, a longer period of time may be specified by the Head Teacher/Chair of Panel, after taking advice from Human Resources.

Where an employee, who has received a warning, which requires an improvement of standards of conduct, is subsequently absent from work during the currency of the warning, the timescale specified in the warning may be extended to reflect this. This will ensure that the full warning period is applied in the work situation and give the employee the fullest opportunity to demonstrate that he/she is capable of complying with reasonable standards set.

Dismissal/action short of dismissal: If misconduct continues or gross misconduct occurs, the employee will normally be dismissed. In the case of gross misconduct, dismissal will normally be without notice (no payment in lieu of notice will be made). If there are exceptional mitigating circumstances the Disciplinary Panel may take action short of dismissal where, otherwise, dismissal would occur. Action short of dismissal may include demotion/transfer to an alternative post and/or location with agreement.

4.8. Appeals (Please refer to Guidance – Section 10)

Employees have the right of appeal against any formal disciplinary warnings or sanction. He/she must give written notice of their decision to appeal within 10 working days of receipt of the letter confirming the sanction and set out the grounds of appeal.

Appeals will be heard at the earliest opportunity and will be heard in line with section 3.

The outcome of the Appeal Hearing must be confirmed in writing.

4.9. Child Protection/criminal offences cases (Please refer to Guidance – Section 12)

Where child protection and/or criminal offences are alleged, those procedures will normally take precedence. A pre-disciplinary investigation may be delayed while matters are considered under statutory/criminal procedures.

4.10. Referrals to external agencies (Please refer to Guidance – Section 13)

Where an employee is dismissed, consideration must be given as to whether the matter should be reported to any professional bodies which require the reporting of safeguarding and misconduct issues e.g. Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS), National College of Teaching & Leadership (NCTL)

4.11. Resignations (Please refer to Guidance – Section 14)

There may be cases in which an employee offers to resign or resigns prior to a Disciplinary Hearing. In these circumstances a decision needs to be made, relevant to the context of the case, and made clear to the employee about whether the Disciplinary Hearing may still go ahead and reach a decision that:

- the outcome will need to be referred to in any references provided.
- where required, the outcome will be reported to any professional bodies which require the reporting of misconduct issues in such circumstances.

4.12. Employee Support (Please refer to Guidance – Section 15)

Investigating Officers should consider offering appropriate support to employees involved in the disciplinary process, which includes giving employees the details of any employee assistance scheme and advising members to contact their trade union/professional association representative.

4.13. Unavailability and Sickness Absence (Please refer to Guidance – Section 16)

If an employee is absent due to sickness during the disciplinary process, the Investigating Officer should determine the nature and likely duration of the absence.

Reasonable time should be allowed for the employee to recover, judged on a case-by-case basis. However, if it is likely that the absence will be prolonged, with the employee continuing to be unfit to take part in an investigation/hearing, the disciplinary process may proceed in his/her absence. The employee's representative may give evidence and state the case for the employee provided this is acceptable to both the employee and representative. The employee may provide a written statement.

5. Examples of types of serious misconduct and possible consequences

This is not an exhaustive list of those instances that could be construed as serious misconduct sufficiently serious to warrant formal disciplinary action. The list is provided to give examples of the types of behaviour that could be regarded as such.

- i. Unjustified refusal of a lawful and reasonable instruction.
- ii. Persistent lateness, unauthorised absence, failure to follow sickness absence notification procedures.
- iii. Verbal assault or threat of violence in the workplace to fellow employees or other people.
- iv. Negligence in carrying out duties in accordance with relevant policies and procedures.
- v. Negligence in the performance of duties and responsibilities not covered by iv) above (except where due to incapability).
- vi. Unauthorised use of the Academy's resources, or confidential information gained whilst in the employment of the Academy (except where employees are protected by the provisions of the Whistle-blowing Policy/Public Interest (Disclosure) Act 1998).
- vii. Acceptance of gifts and hospitality in contravention of the Academy Trust's Policy.
- viii. Personal conduct occurring outside of the workplace, which is deemed sufficiently serious to affect an employee's position at work.
- ix. Inappropriate use of electronic communications, including email or internet access facilities.
- x. Failure to abide by professional codes of conduct/standards
- xi. Discrimination, bullying or harassment.

Note: Incidences described above would normally result in a written warning (which may be a final warning). Continued/repeated incidences of misconduct may however lead to dismissal.

6. Examples of types of gross misconduct and possible consequences

This is not an exhaustive list of those incidences that could be construed as gross misconduct. It is provided as an example of the types of behaviour that could be regarded as such.

- i. Theft or attempted theft, fraud or fraudulent falsification of accounts, or other official records.
- ii. Deliberate damage to the property of the Academy or that of any other employee.
- iii. Physical or indecent assaults deemed sufficiently serious to affect an employee's position at work.
- iv. Serious breaches of the Academy Trust's Policy on the acceptance of gifts and hospitality.
- v. Serious breaches of confidentiality (unless subject to the protection afforded by the Whistle-blowing Policy/Public Interest (Disclosure) Act 1998).
- vi. Discrimination, bullying or personal harassment of a serious, wilful and/or sustained nature.

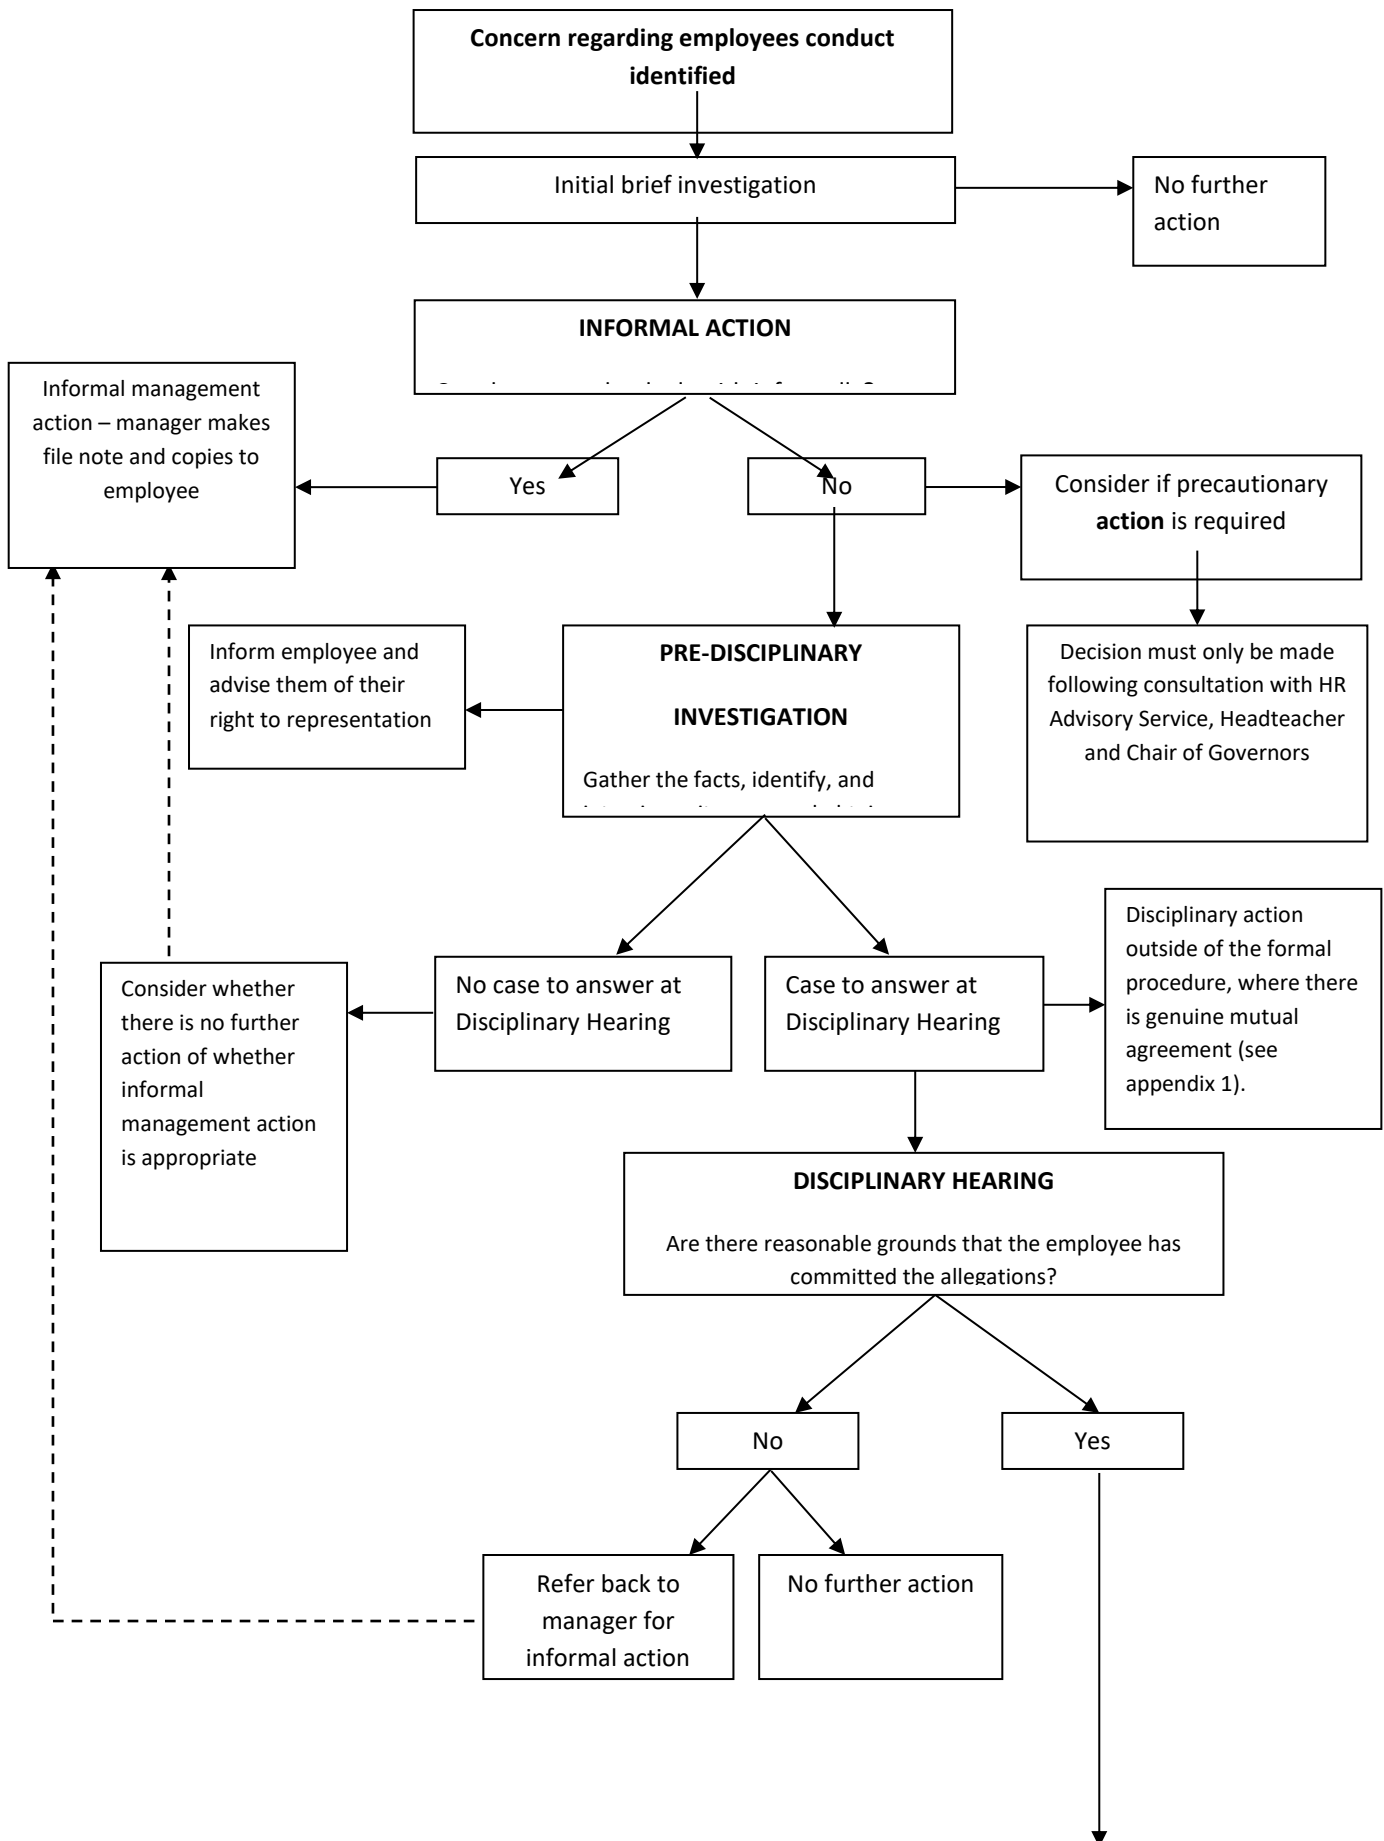

- vii. Being incapable of work, or of working safely due to the influence of alcohol or drugs or other substances (unless the Capability and/or Occupational Health Procedures are deemed to apply).
- viii. Serious negligence or wilful failure to comply with legal requirements of the Academy's various policies and procedures such as Health and Safety, Equalities, Data Protection, or any other legal or statutory requirement.
- ix. Serious negligence, which causes or might have caused unacceptable loss, damage or injury.
- x. Behaviour, which has brought the Academy or its services into serious disrepute.
- xi. Serious breach of computer security and/or information governance and/or abuse of electronic systems including the misuse of email and/or internet facilities and deliberately attempting to access pornographic, offensive or obscene material.
- xii. Personal conduct occurring outside of the workplace, including actions which result in the employee being unable to conduct, or unsuitable for, their type of work.
- xiii. Serious and sustained insubordination.
- xiv. Serious breach of professional codes of conduct/standards.
- xv. Serious misuse of Academy property or name.

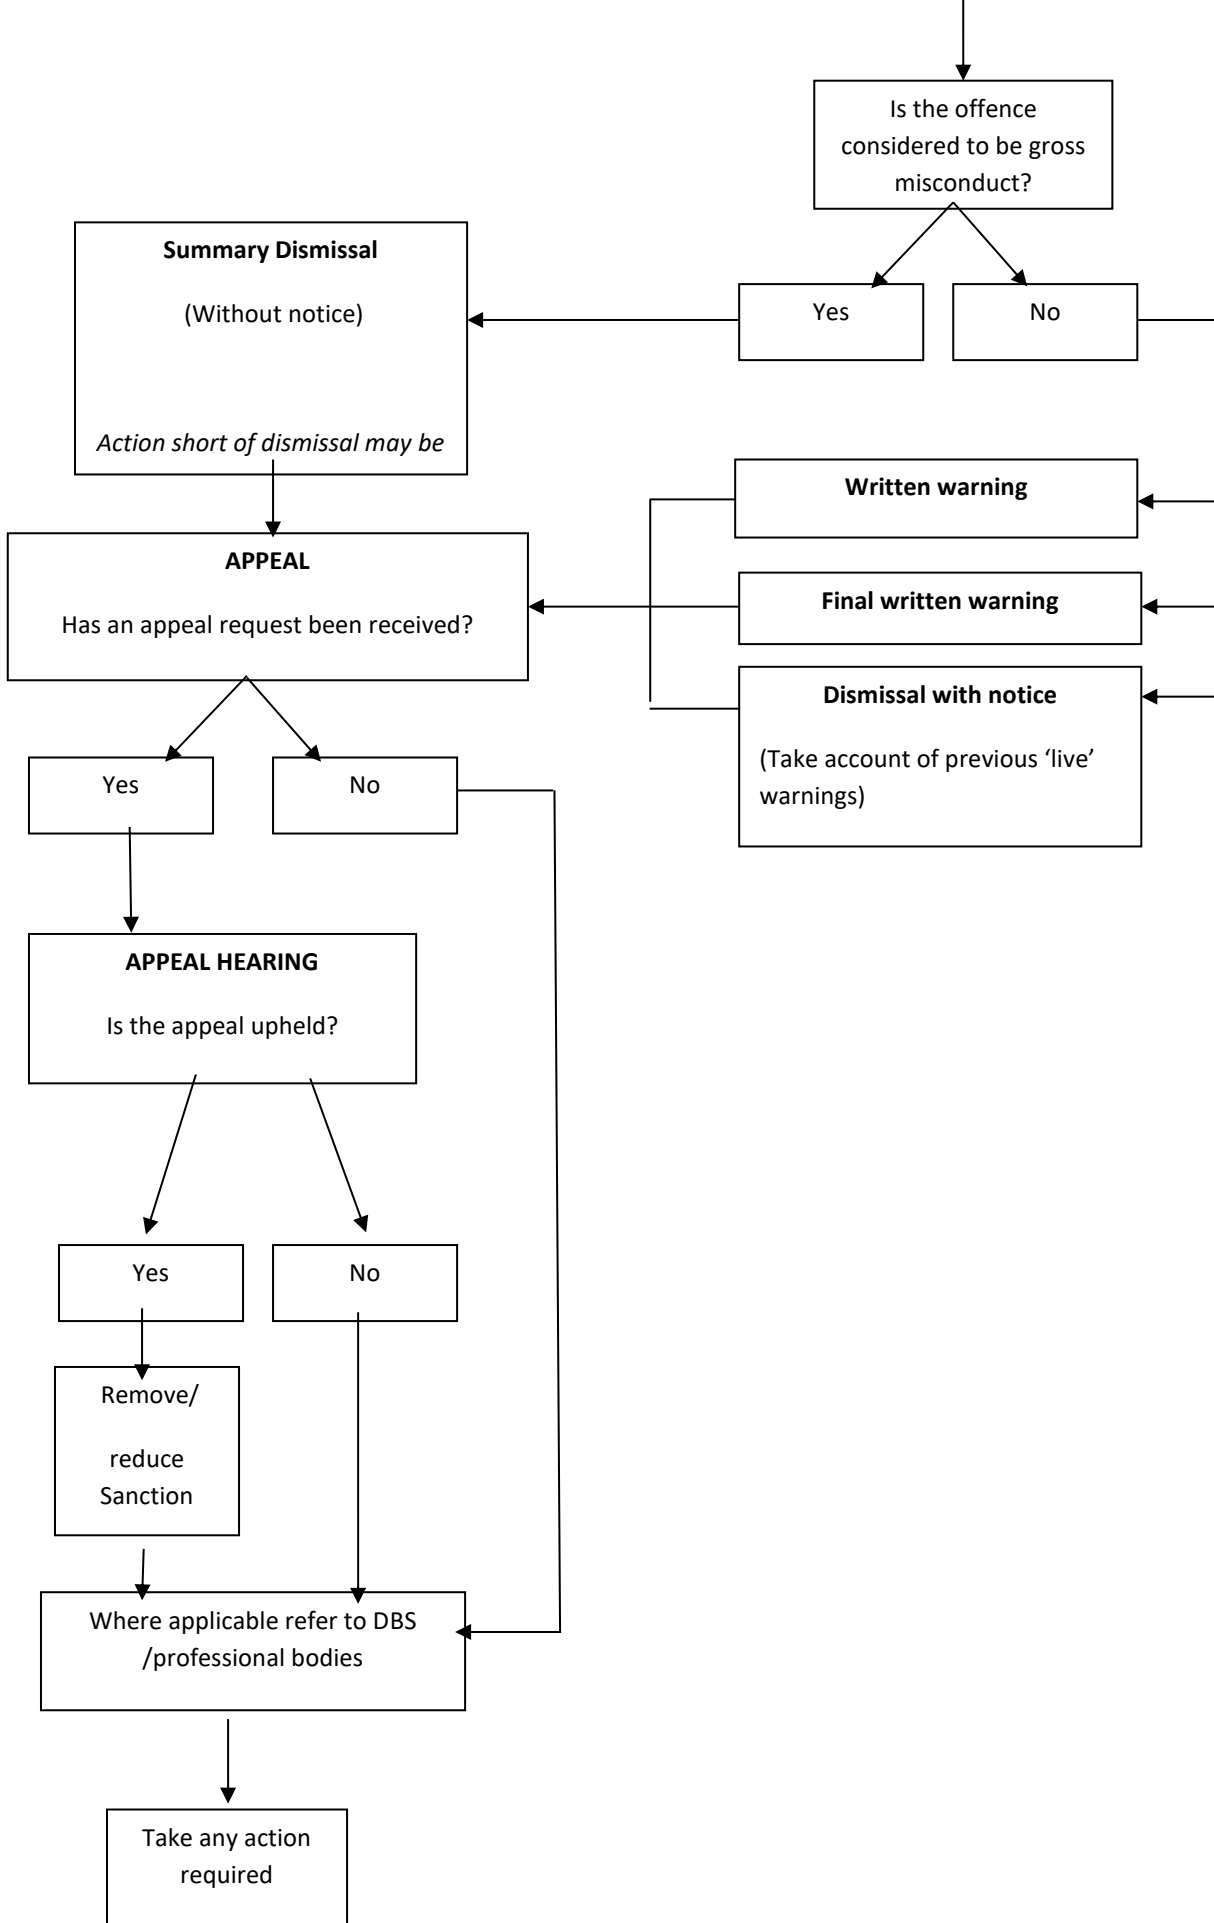

Actions or behaviours that could be construed as gross misconduct may lead the Investigating Officer to conclude that there has been a complete breakdown of trust and confidence between the Academy and the employee, even where any individual act in itself would not constitute gross misconduct.

Note: Incidences described above would normally result in dismissal without notice. Action short of dismissal may be taken in the event of mitigating circumstances.

7. Flow diagram

This flow diagram should be read in conjunction with the Disciplinary Procedure and accompanying Guidance.

8. Appendix 1: Action outside of the formal disciplinary procedure

- 8.1. Occasions may arise when it is appropriate to take disciplinary action outside of the formal procedure. This should not be regarded as normal practice but can arise when for example an employee is made aware of a formal investigation and is prepared to accept a formal warning without the formal hearing/appeal process.
- 8.2. Such action can save a considerable amount of time and stress for all the parties concerned whilst also achieving the purpose of a disciplinary warning which is to correct an employee's behaviour and move forward.
- 8.3. However it is essential that due process is followed in accordance with these guidelines to avoid accusations of unfairness or undue pressure, subsequent misunderstandings or appeals.
- 8.4. This process is not appropriate if the disciplinary action sought is dismissal. If however during the process an individual offers his/her resignation its acceptance can be considered, provided due process is followed and management are confident that they can adequately defend any subsequent accusations of unfairness or undue pressure. If in doubt a formal hearing should be arranged.
- 8.5. It is management's responsibility to establish the facts of any case before proposing a sanction and therefore a formal investigation will normally be required and/or the evidence assembled in the usual way.
- 8.6. A meeting must be arranged at which the employee can hear a full explanation of the evidence and proposed penalty and at which they can comment and question the facts of the case and level of penalty proposed. If the employee has admitted to the misconduct a summary of the evidence should suffice.
- 8.7. The employee must be advised of their rights to a formal hearing and be given a copy of the formal procedure with explanation as necessary. They should be asked to confirm their understanding.
- 8.8. The employee must be given the right and encouraged to be accompanied by a union representative or colleague and be given adequate opportunity to take separate advice from his/her representative or colleague before the meeting, in adjournment and/or following the meeting or to seek independent advice within a reasonable period of time following the meeting.
- 8.9. The manager should also arrange to be accompanied by another manager (or representative of the HR Advisory Service) who will act as a witness to what is said and agreed.
- 8.10. If there is agreement to the proposed sanction, management must confirm in writing to the employee the facts of the case and the process that has been followed including the date of the meeting, those present, the information and advice given about the employee's rights under the formal procedure and his/her understanding of these and the agreed penalty.
- 8.11. The employee must be given the opportunity to consider the letter and take further independent advice before formally confirming his/her agreement in writing to that effect. A maximum period of 10 working days should be allowed for further advice and consideration.
- 8.12. Copies of the agreement signed by both parties should be retained on the employee's personal file. The agreed warning may then be taken into account in any subsequent disciplinary process up to the time limits specified in the formal procedure. The warning period will begin from the date the employee signs the agreement.
- 8.13. Although unlikely to be required after agreement has been reached, the employee has the right of appeal against a warning issued under this procedure. In such cases the employee must write stating their grounds of appeal within 10 working days of receipt of the warning letter. In such cases the standard Disciplinary Appeals Procedure will be followed
- 8.14. Please refer to the accompanying Disciplinary Guidance for template letters to be used.
